Mission: The primary mission of Crossroads Bank Junior Board of Directors is to introduce students to community organizations and showcase all there is to offer in Wabash County. We want students to understand that working for a business is far more than showing up. Our community thrives when everyone takes an active role.

Commitment: Board orientation will be held in person in July 2023 and the Board will meet monthly August 2023 – May 2024 from approximately 11 AM – 1 PM. Transportation is provided by the school. Two community service opportunities will be decided upon by the Board.
