Important Information about Procedures for Opening a New Account

Identification Procedures Requirements: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Security Notice:

You should ONLY fill out this form on-line if you are using a browser with the latest security enhancements. If you don't have the latest version, download a copy now. This form is NOT cached (saved in your computer's memory) when you QUIT your browser.

Instructions:

1. Print this loan application and gather the information you'll need.
