Mission: The primary mission of Crossroads Bank Junior Board of Directors is to introduce students to community organizations and showcase all that Wabash County has to offer. We want students to understand that working for a business is far more than showing up. Our community thrives when everyone takes an active role.

Commitment: The Board will meet monthly September 2026 – May 2027 from approximately 11 AM – 12:30 PM. Transportation is provided by the school. Two community service opportunities will be decided upon by the Board.
