Important Information about Procedures for Opening a New Account

Identification Procedures Requirements: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Information For Government Monitoring Purposes

This section to be completed only for loans subject to reporting under the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA).

HMDA loans are loans made for the following purposes: Home Purchase (secured), Home Improvement (secured or unsecured), or refinance of a loan secured by a 1-4 residential dwelling (regardless of purpose).

The following information is requested by the Federal government for certain types of loans related to a dwelling, in order to monitor the Lender's compliance with equal credit opportunity, fair housing and home mortgage disclosure laws. You are not required to furnish this information, but are encouraged to do so. The law provides that a Lender may discriminate neither on the basis of this information, nor on whether you choose to furnish it.

If you choose to furnish the information, please provide both ethnicity and race. For race, you may check more than one designation. If you do not furnish ethnicity, race, or sex, under Federal regulations, this Lender is required to note the information on the basis of visual observation or surname.

If you do not wish to furnish the above information, please check the box below. (Lender must review the above material to assure that the disclosures satisfy all requirements to which the Lender is subject under applicable state law for the particular type of loan applied for.)
